

Placements

Robert Gordon University is authorised to participate in the US Federal Student Aid Programs on condition that the post-secondary education it delivers is outside of the United States.

The institution is not permitted to make available Federal Direct Loans to U.S. students who receive any portion of their educational program inside the United States. This regulation therefore prohibits U.S. students in receipt of Federal Direct loans from undertaking course placements within the USA.

October 2014